

South Abington Sept. 5, 1873

Dear Friend Garrison -

I send you, - mostly for amusement, - a few nos. of the "Times" of this place. You will notice some articles marked, in some of which your name is made prom-inent. 'H. H. B.' of course is our friend Brigham. "Observer" is a young orthodox church member, J. C. Bates - "Orthodox" is Rev. John Thompson, clergy-man, of this place. - You will observe that he claims for the Church much more than we were willing to grant. When the Country was bound onward, seemingly to destruction the so called church of Christ was standing by protecting the slaveholder, and consenting that slavery should rule the land and triumph in its unholy claims.

After looking over the articles, should you think it worth your time to say anything in re-gard to the matter discussed, I can safely promise you a hearing. Should you not wish to be known in so small a matter, an article sent to me will gain admittance without the writer being known to the Editor even.

Of course you will act as you feel in regard to it.

Very truly yours &
Samuel Dyer.
